

TAX TIPS FOR SPRAY TANNING

LEARN HOW TO GET THE MAX DEDUCTIONS FOR YOUR SPRAY TAN BIZ

Keeping good records is essential to maximizing your deductions. Don't forget the importance of keeping track of your income as well. Keep every receipt and log purchases and income on a regular basis to make tax time a breeze.

CHEAT SHEET FOR MAX TAX DEDUCTIONS

Tip: Track your income by logging every client purchase into SquareUp's free app. Track Mileage with a phone app as well like MileageIQ.

Products - Tan Solutions & Products

Equipment - Machine, Fan, Tent, Bags etc

Supplies - Disposables, Face Wipes, Paper Towels, Hair Ties

Education - Membership Dues, Groups, Clubs

Travel - Mileage to and from appointments and marketing/sales events.

Workshops and training events (all transportation, lodging and even food). Don't forget Tolls and Parking fees.

Gifts - Product Samples (all costs associated with making them), umbrellas, flip flops etc. Donations for charity events as well.

Advertising - Digital ads like facebook, yelp or wedding wire. Print ads like copies, flyers, business cards, signs for your car, banners) etc.

Credit Card Fees - Fees you incur for processing clients purchases as well as fees for cards that you use to purchase your kit or supplies.

Cell Phone - A percentage of your cell bill can be deducted.

House - Square footed that is dedicated exclusively for your business can be tax deductible.

Office Supplies - paper, pens, furniture.

Internet - A portion of your bill can be deducted since you need this for work.

Utilities - Like water and electric may be tax deductible based on your home business

